Brighter Futures start here

As Australia's biggest and most loved retailer, we've been brightening up everyday life for families for over 50 years. At our stores, distribution centres, and offices in Australia and New Zealand. All around the globe. Our diverse and inclusive 47,000 strong team come together for a common cause. Giving families easy access to our on-trend products and incredibly low prices – it's the heart of everything we do.

As a leader in the retail market, we're optimistic about our future and yours. We're relentless in our pursuit for results, but changing at a rapid rate, giving you challenging work that you'll be proud of. We celebrate your uniqueness and individuality. Because at Kmart it's not just what you do, it's who you are that makes every day living brighter.

Join Our Holiday Casual Team at Kmart!

We're looking for enthusiastic Team Members to join us during our busy peak season. These casual positions start in late September 2025 and run through mid February 2026. As a key member of our dynamic team, you'll help create a positive shopping experience for our customers and support the overall team in achieving our store goals. Your responsibilities will include delivering exceptional customer service, maintaining a safe and clean environment, and ensuring organised and inviting customer experience. Be part of a vibrant team and make a difference this holiday season!

Our Holiday casual team members are:

- Team players who work well with others
- Have positive attitudes and are keen to represent the Kmart brand
- Are proactive and take initiative

- Passionate about keeping your store looking tidy and organised
- Understand the importance of work safety

A place you can belong

We celebrate the rich diversity of the communities in which we operate. We are committed to creating inclusive and safe environments where all our team members can contribute and succeed. We believe that all team members should feel valued, respected and safe, and strive to ensure our recruitment process is accessible and welcoming, with applications encouraged from all candidates.
